LeanAgri- Job Description

Agronomy Officer (Telugu)

About LeanAgri

At LeanAgri, we are trying to solve the twin problem of food security and dwindling farm incomes. We are passionate group of people working for agriculture and solving challenging problems in this sector.

Job Summary

If you love to work at a fast-paced agriculture environment and desire to work for most under-served community in nation - farmers, we want hear from you.
We are looking for an enthusiastic and energetic individual to take over the role: Agronomy Officer (Telugu)

You will be responsible for all the agronomy practices, client and user interactions specific to clients from Andhra Pradesh and Telangana. You will be working out of company head office at Pune, Maharashtra.

If you are interested to grow and learn in your career and at the same time support our farmers, we encourage you to apply.

Responsibilities and Duties

- Co-ordination with project manager and agronomy head for client specific requirements
- Communication with clients and users for query and doubt solving
- Preparation of detailed package of practices for crops in specific languages (Telugu)
- Preparation of detailed integrated nutrient management practices for crops in specific languages (Telugu)
- Preparation of detailed integrated pest management practices for crops in specific languages (Telugu)
- Continually advance your knowledge in agronomy and for other team members
- Work in collaboration with farm associates, project managers who would be interacting with farmers

Qualification and Skills

- Minimum three years of experience in the field of agronomy
- Master degree in Agriculture/Agronomy/Horticulture (Plant pathology or entomology preferred)
- Familiarity with advanced agronomy practices specially integrated management techniques
- Leadership qualities to train and guide farm associates
- Willingness to stay in rural area part-time (full time if required)
- Willingness to go through online or executive courses
- Good communication skills and proficiency in English and Telugu

Compensation and Provisions

- Salary - INR 18,000 to 20,000 per month
- Reimbursement /allowance for rural accommodation and travel will be provided by company (if any)

Location of work

- Work location will be head office located in Pune
- There will be field visits to rural areas when and where required